

NATIONAL INTERPROFESSIONAL COMPETENCY FRAMEWORK SELF-ASSESSMENT

The CIHC National Interprofessional Competency Framework¹ describes the competencies required for effective interprofessional collaboration. Six competency domains highlight the knowledge, skills, attitudes and values that together shape the judgments that are essential for interprofessional collaborative practice. These domains are:

- Role Clarification
- Team Functioning
- Patient/Client/Family/Community-Centred Care
- Collaborative Leadership
- Interprofessional Communication
- Interprofessional Conflict Management

This self assessment survey allows you to reflect on your areas of strength in collaborative practice and areas that you may wish to strengthen. Please indicate how well you believe you attend to each of the following indicators.

Example: Competency	Never	Rarely	Some-times	Almost always	Does not apply
Indicator #1				√
Indicator #2			√

¹ CIHC National Competency Framework draft (2010)

I. Role Clarification

Learners/practitioners understand their own role and the roles of those in other professions, and use this knowledge appropriately to establish and achieve patient/client/family and community goals.

Indicator	Never	Rarely	Some- times	Almost always	Does not apply
Describes own role and that of others
Recognizes and respects the diversity of other health and social care roles, responsibilities, and competencies
Performs own roles in a culturally respectful way
Communicates roles, knowledge, skills, and attitudes using appropriate language
Considers the roles of others in determining own professional and interprofessional roles
Accesses others' skills and knowledge appropriately through consultation
Considers the roles of other in determining own professional and interprofessional roles.
Integrates competencies/roles seamlessly into models of service delivery

II. Patient/Client/Family/Community-Centred Care

Learners/practitioners seek out, integrate and value, as a partner, the input, and the engagement of the patient/client/family/community in designing and implementing care/services.

Indicator	Never	Rarely	Some-times	Almost always	Does not apply
Supports the participation of patients/clients, their families, and/or community representatives as integral partners alongside with healthcare personnel
Shares information with patients/clients, (or family and community) in a respectful manner and in such a way that it is understandable, encourages discussion, and enhances participation in decision-making
Ensures that appropriate education and support is provided to patients/clients, family members and others involved with care or service
Listens respectfully to the expressed needs of all parties in shaping and delivering care or services

III. Team Functioning

Learners/practitioners understand the principles of team work dynamics and group/team processes to enable effective interprofessional collaboration.

Indicator	Never	Rarely	Some-times	Almost always	Does not apply
Understands the process of team development
Develops a set of principles for working together that respects the ethical values of members
Effectively facilitates discussions and interactions among team members
Participates, and is respectful of all members' participation, in collaborative decision-making
Regularly reflects on their functioning with team learners/practitioners and patients/clients/families
Establishes and maintains effective and healthy working relationships with learners/practitioners, patients/clients, and families, whether or not a formalized team exists
Respects team ethics, including confidentiality, resource allocation, and professionalism

IV. Collaborative Leadership

Learners/practitioners understand and can apply leadership principles that support a collaborative practice model. This domain supports shared decision-making as well as leadership but it also implies continued individual accountability for one's own actions, responsibilities and roles as explicitly defined within one's professional/disciplinary scope of practice.

Indicator	Never	Rarely	Some- times	Almost always	Does not apply
Works with others to enable effective patient/client outcomes
Advancement of interdependent working relationships among all participants
Facilitation of effective team processes
Facilitation of effective decision-making
Establishment of a climate for collaborative practice among all participants
Co-creation of a climate for shared leadership and collaborative practice
Application of collaborative decision-making principles
Integration of the principles of continuous quality improvement to work processes and outcomes

V. Interprofessional Communication

Learners/practitioners from different professions communicate with each other in a collaborative, responsive and responsible manner.

Indicator	Never	Rarely	Some- times	Almost always	Does not apply
Establishes team work communication principles
Actively listens to other team members including patients/clients/families
Communicates to ensure common understanding of care decisions
Develops trusting relationships with patients/clients/families and other team members
Effectively uses information and communication technology to improve interprofessional patient/client/community-centred care

VI. Interprofessional Conflict Management

Learners/practitioners actively engage self and others, including the client/patient/family, in positively and constructively addressing disagreements as they arise.

Indicator	Never	Rarely	Some- times	Almost always	Does not apply
Values the potential positive nature of conflict
Recognizes the potential for conflict to occur and taking constructive steps to address it
Identifies common situations that are likely to lead to disagreements or conflicts, including role ambiguity, power gradients, and differences in goals
Knows and understands strategies to deal with conflict
Sets guidelines for addressing disagreements
Effectively works to address and resolve disagreements, including analyzing the causes of conflict and working to reach an acceptable solution
Establishes a safe environment in which to express diverse opinions
Develops a level of consensus among those with differing views; allowing all members to feel their viewpoints have been heard no matter what the outcome					